Shell - Reservoir Engineering Intern; Development and Subsurface, Malaysia. June 2024 - Aug 2024

- Worked in an integrated team of Reservoir Engineers, Production Technologist and Geologist to select candidates for a multi-million dollar acid stimulation campaign for Sabah's major oilfield
- Delivered reservoir inflow performance input based on multiphase flow Pressure Transient Analysis (PTA) interpretation for 3 oil producer wells and 1 water injector well to internal and external stakeholders
- Updated 4-7 years' worth of PTA of 4 wells for the subsurface team within 8 weeks
- Developed new PTA models using Kappa Saphir, while tying in geological and seismic information of the reservoir
- Analyzed the effectiveness of Gas Shut-Off (GSO) in reducing Gas Oil Ratio (GOR) by utilizing PTA results
- Identified and rectified inconsistencies of inputs in past PTA models

Shell - Reservoir Engineering Intern; Development and Subsurface, Malaysia. May 2023 - Aug 2023

- Provided Pressure Transient Analysis (PTA) on 2 oil producer wells and 1 water injector well in Shell Malaysia's major oil field using Kappa Saphir
- Analyzed the comparison between the usage of Permanent Downhole Gauge (PDG) and Static Gradient Survey (SGS) to obtain pressure data points in wells
